

Academia	Film and television
Will W. Alexander, first president of Dillard University and head of the Commission on Interracial Cooperation	Dwight Henry, actor
Stephen Ambrose, historian and University of New Orleans professor	Gloria Henry, actress born in New Orleans in 1923
Charles C. Bass, physician and researcher in tropical medicine and dental health	Cheryl Holdridge, actress and Mouseketeer
Stanhope Bayne-Jones, physician, member of US Surgeon General's Committee linking smoking to cancer	Indigo, actress
Joan W. Bennett, biologist and former Tulane University professor	Eddie Jemison, actor
Cyril Y. Bowers, physician and endocrinology researcher	Bayn Johnson, former child actress and singer
Rick Brewer, president of Louisiana College since 2015; born in New Orleans in 1956	Leatrice Joy, actress
Douglas Brinkley, historian, author and former University of New Orleans and Tulane University professor	Dorothy Lamour, actress
Brené Brown, professor of social work; author	John Larroquette, actor
George E. Burch, pioneering physician, cardiovascular disease researcher, medical school professor	Sabrina LeBeauf, actress
Henry E. Chambers, Louisiana historian and educator	Anthony Mackie, actor
John R. Conniff, New Orleans educator and university administrator	Adah Isaacs Menken, actress
Scott Cowen, president of Tulane University	Taylor Miller, actress
Michael DeBakey, pioneer in heart surgery	Garrett Morris, comedian (SNL), actor
Albert W. Dent, president of Dillard University, chief executive of Flint-Goodridge Hospital	Arthel Neville, journalist
Henry C. Dethloff, American historian	Chris Owens, burlesque performer and entrepreneur
James H. Dillard, educator, advocate for education of African-Americans	Pauley Perrette, actress
Michael T. Dugan, educator and accounting scholar	Tyler Perry, actor, director
Alcée Fortier, folklorist, historian, and university professor	Wendell Pierce, actor, Detective Bunk Moreland in The Wire
Mary L. Good, scientist and university professor	Godfrey Reggio, experimental filmmaker/documentarian (Qatsi trilogy)
Edgar Hull, Louisiana physician, professor, and hospital administrator	Al Shea, actor and theatre critic
Clifton H. Johnson, historian and founder of the Amistad Research Center	Sydney Shields, stage actress
Eamon Kelly, president of Tulane University	Richard Simmons, entertainer
Salman Khan, educator	Harold Sylvester, film actor
James A. Knight, psychiatrist, theologian, and medical ethicist	Jay Thomas, actor
Marietta LeBreton, Louisiana historian	Sam Trammell, actor, best known for his role as Sam Merlotte in True Blood
Rudolph Matas, innovative surgeon at Tulane Medical School	Ben Turpin, silent film comedian
Alton Ochsner, surgeon and medical researcher, founded the Ochsner Medical Center	Ray Walston, actor
Max Rafferty, public school administrator and writer	Carl Weathers, actor, football player
Ed Renwick, political scientist and television commentator	Walter Williams, creator of Mr. Bill
Charles P. Roland, historian at Tulane and later the University of Kentucky, specializes in American Civil War and American South	Cora Witherspoon, actress
Andrew V. Schally, endocrinologist and Nobel Laureate	Reese Witherspoon, actress
Mary S. Sherman, cancer researcher and physician	Grace Zabriskie, actress
Harry V. Sims, surgeon, hospital administrator, gynecological researcher	Journalism
Argile Smith, former J. D. Grey Professor of Preaching at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, past interim president of Louisiana College	James Carville, Democratic Party political consultant and pundit
Lewis Thomas, physician, researcher, and author of popular non-fiction	Buddy Diliberto, sports journalist
Jeffrey Vitter, computer scientist and Purdue University dean	Dorothy Dix, journalist
Arts and literature	Charles L. "Pie" Dufour, newspaper columnist and historian
Enrique Alferez, sculptor	Hap Glaudi, television sportscaster
John James Audubon, painter, ornithologist, naturalist	Victor Gold, journalist and political consultant, reared in New Orleans[7]
E. J. Bellocq, photographer	Bryant Gumbel, television anchor
Eloise Bibb Thompson, poet, fiction writer, and playwright	Greg Gumbel, television sportscaster
Skip Bolen, photographer	Jim Henderson, television sportscaster
Poppy Z. Brite, writer	Iris Kelso, journalist for three New Orleans newspapers and WDSU television commentator
George Washington Cable, writer	Hoda Kotb, television anchor
Milburn E. Calhoun, book publisher	Mel Leavitt, television journalist and historian

Georgine Campbell, painter	Angus Lind, newspaper journalist
Truman Capote, writer	Wayne Mack, television sportscaster
John Churchill Chase, writer and cartoonist	John Maginnis, journalist, political commentator, and author of The Last Hayride, The Cross to Bear, and The Politics of Reform
Kate Chopin, writer, feminist	Mary Matalin, Republican Party political consultant
Ben Claassen III, illustrator and comics artist, DIRTFARM	Patrick McCauley, journalist; edited The Huntsville Times, 1966 to 1994; employed by New Orleans Times-Picayune from 1960 to 1966[8]
Andrei Codrescu, poet and commentator	Bill Monroe, NBC television journalist
Edgar Degas, artist	Cokie Roberts, ABC television journalist and commentator for National Public Radio
Thomas Dent, poet and writer	Nash Roberts, television meteorologist
George Washington Dixon, newspaper editor	Garland Robinette, investigative journalist
Alexander John Drysdale, artist	Thomas Sancton, Sr., civil rights journalist
George Dureau, artist and photographer	Howard K. Smith, television anchorman
William Faulkner, writer	Blaine Stewart, television journalist
Daniel F. Galouye, science fiction writer	Ronnie Virgets, writer and broadcast journalist
Whitney Gaskell, writer, attended Tulane Law School which was the setting of her 2006 novel Testing Kate	Jack Wardlaw, newspaper investigative journalist, with New Orleans States-Item; then bureau chief in Baton Rouge of the New Orleans Times-Picayune [9]
Rolland Golden, artist	Law, politics, and military
Shirley Ann Grau, writer	Bryan Adams, former member of the Louisiana House of Representatives from Jefferson Parish since 2012; born in New Orleans.[10]
Lafcadio Hearn, writer	Reverend Avery Alexander, civil rights leader, state legislator
Knute Heldner, artist	Jeff Arnold, former member of the Louisiana House for the Algiers section, 2002–2016
Lillian Hellman, writer	John B. Babcock, Medal of Honor recipient
George Herriman, Krazy Kat cartoonist	Algernon Sidney Badger, government official during and after Reconstruction[11]
Emma Churchman Hewitt, writer, journalist	Austin Badon, state representative for District 100 in Orleans Parish, 2004–2016; workforce development administrator at Nunez Community College since 2000[12]
May Lesser Hyman, medical illustrator	Ben Bagert, attorney and member of both houses of Louisiana State Legislature
Walter Isaacson, writer, journalist, public policy analyst	Diana Bajoie, member of both houses of Louisiana legislature 1976–2008; former member of the New Orleans City Council
Harnett Kane, author of southern history, geography, culture, and fiction	P.G.T. Beauregard, Confederate general and inventor
Frances Parkinson Keyes, writer	Clyde F. Bel Jr., businessman and state representative for Orleans Parish, 1964 to 1972 and 1975–1980
Dominique Lapierre, writer	Judah P. Benjamin, United States Senator, Confederate Attorney General, Secretary of War and Secretary of State
Elmore Leonard, author	Kirt Bennett, Republican political activist, founder of Young Leaders Academy in Baton Rouge
Michael Lewis, writer	Wesley T. Bishop, member of the Louisiana State Senate; former state representative for District 99 in Orleans Parish; administrator at Southern University at New Orleans[13]
Louis-Alphonse Moreau, painter	Hale Boggs, former U.S. Representative
Robert Bledsoe Mayfield, artist	Lindy Boggs, former U.S. Representative and retired U.S. Ambassador to The Vatican
John McCrady, artist	Thomas Hale Boggs Jr., lawyer/lobbyist in Washington, D.C, born in New Orleans in 1940, son of Hale and Lindy Boggs, brother of Cokie Roberts and Barbara Boggs Sigmund
James Michalopoulos, artist[1]	Edward S. Bopp, retired pharmacist and attorney and state representative for Orleans and St. Bernard parishes from 1977 to 1984; born in New Orleans in 1930
Andres Molinary, artist	Joseph Bouie Jr., Democratic member of the Louisiana House of Representatives for District 97 in Orleans Parish since 2014; retired faculty member and administrator at Southern University at New Orleans[14]
Alice Dunbar Nelson, poet, journalist and political activist	Stephen Bradberry, community organizer, Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Award laureate
Isadora Newman, artist, poet, storyteller, sculptor	Juan Davis Bradburn, freedom fighter for Mexico, officer in the Battle of New Orleans
John Travis Nixon, journalist, published what became The Monroe News Star and The Crowley Post Signal[2]	Henry Braden, politician
Renee Peck, writer	Elward Thomas Brady Jr., state representative from Terrebonne Parish from 1972 to 1976, born in New Orleans[15]

Achille Peretti, artist	Jared Brossett, member of the New Orleans City Council since 2014; state representative for District 97, 2009–2014
Paul E. Poincy, artist	J. Marshall Brown, insurance agent and politician
Matthew Randazzo V, writer	Peppi Bruneau, attorney and former member of the Louisiana House of Representatives
Anne Rice, writer of vampire tales and other Gothic fiction	Roy A. Burrell, state representative for Caddo and Bossier parishes since 2004; former New Orleans resident[16]
Christopher Rice, author	Benjamin F. Butler, administrator of Union-occupied New Orleans during the Civil War
Stan Rice, poet	Pascal F. Calogero Jr., Chief Justice Louisiana Supreme Court
George Rodrigue, artist	Tom Capella, assessor of Jefferson Parish; former state representative and Jefferson Parish Council member; lawyer in his native New Orleans[17]
John T. Scott, artist and sculptor	Gary Carter Jr., member of the Louisiana House from the Algiers neighborhood, effective 2016
Kendall Shaw, abstract expressionist painter	James Carville, political consultant, political science professor
John Kennedy Toole, writer of A Confederacy of Dunces	Philip Ciccio, state representative 1962 to 1966, New Orleans City Council member for District E 1966 to 1982, and circuit court judge from 1982 to 1998
Jesmyn Ward, novelist and academic	Walter L. Cohen, politician and businessman
Lucille Western, actress	Harry Connick Sr., district attorney, father of singer Harry Connick Jr.
Tennessee Williams, playwright	Rob Couhig, businessman, attorney, politician
Business and economics	Milton Joseph Cunningham, attorney, state legislator, state attorney general for three nonconsecutive terms ending in 1900
Isaac Delgado, businessman and philanthropist, benefactor of Delgado Community College	Étienne de Boré, first Mayor of New Orleans in the U.S. administration
Constant C. Dejoie Sr., African-American business leader	Jean Noel Destréhan, early Creole politician and plantation owner
William Edenborn (1848–1926), industrialist and inventor, owner of Louisiana Railway and Navigation Company, which linked Shreveport with New Orleans[3]	Eddie Doucet, state representative for Jefferson Parish from 1972 to 1988; businessman in Jefferson Parish, born in New Orleans[18]
Ruth Fertel, Louisiana Businesswoman, Ruth's Chris Steakhouse[4][better source needed]	David Duke, state representative for Metairie from 1989 to 1992; White nationalist
Avram Glazer, businessman and sports franchise owner	Charles E. Dunbar, attorney, civil service reformer
Daniel Henry Holmes, 19th century businessman	H. Garland Dupré, attorney and politician; Speaker of the Louisiana House 1908–1910; U.S. representative from Louisiana's 2nd congressional district, 1910–1924
John McDonogh (1779–1850), shipping, land speculation (world's largest private landholder ca. 1850), philanthropist and namesake of many New Orleans schools	Frank Burton Ellis, attorney, politician, federal judge
Alexander Milne, 18th-century businessman and entrepreneur	Albert Estopinal, former U.S. representative and member of both houses of the Louisiana State Legislature
T. J. Moran, businessman, restaurateur, and philanthropist[5]	Robert Faucheux, former Louisiana state representative, educated in New Orleans
Oliver Pollock, merchant, financier of the American Revolutionary War	Olaf Fink, member of the Louisiana State Senate from 1956 to 1972; New Orleans educator[19]
Benjamin M. Rosen, computer entrepreneur	C.B. Forgetston, attorney, political activist, state government watchdog
Louis J. Roussel Jr., businessman and political kingmaker	Garey Forster, radio host, former state representative and state labor secretary
Clay Shaw, businessman	Hoffman Franklin Fuller, professor-emeritus at Tulane University Law School, authority on tax law
Edgar B. Stern Sr, businessperson and philanthropist	Henry L. Fuqua, governor that defeated Huey Long in an election
Frederick W. Tilton, businessman and philanthropist	Randal Gaines, state representative since 2012 for St. Charles and St. John the Baptist parishes; former assistant city attorney in New Orleans[20]
Judah Touro, businessman and philanthropist	Gerald J. Gallinghouse, U.S. Attorney for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana 1970–1978; known for prosecuting corruption in government[21]
Martin de Villamil or Martin Villamil (1783–1843), businessman	Jim Garrison, district attorney of Orleans Parish
David Voelker, businessman and philanthropist[6]	Robert T. Garrity Jr., attorney and former state representative for Jefferson Parish
Samuel Zemurray, businessman and philanthropist	Newt Gingrich, U.S. Congressman from Georgia, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives
Cuisine	John Grenier, Birmingham lawyer and Alabama Republican Party figure, born in New Orleans in 1930
John Besh, chef	Jimmy Harris, African-American Democrat state representative for District 99 since 2016
Owen Brennan, restaurateur	F. Edward Hebert, Democrat U.S. Representative for Louisiana's 1st congressional district, 1941 to 1977

Richard Brennan Sr., restaurateur, Commander's Palace	Cynthia Hedge-Morrell, former member of the New Orleans City Council for District D, 2005 to 2014
Leah Chase, chef	Fred Heebe, New Orleans businessman
Al Copeland, restaurateur, Popeye's Chicken & Biscuits and Copeland's restaurants	Frederick Jacob Reagan Heebe, former judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
Ruth Fertel, restaurateur, Ruth's Chris Steak House	Jennifer Sneed Heebe, former state representative for Jefferson Parish and former member of the Jefferson Parish Council[22]
Emeril Lagasse, chef; restaurateur; television personality	David Heitmeier, state senator for District 7 since 2008, optometrist[23]
Beulah Levy Ledner, pastry chef	Francis C. Heitmeier, state senator for District 7, 1988 to 2008; businessman and lobbyist
Austin Leslie, chef	David Hennessy, police chief, assassinated in 1890
Paul Prudhomme, chef	Theodore M. Hickey, New Orleans City Council member, 1958–1962; state senator, 1955–1957 and 1963–1984
Crime	Clay Higgins, Republican member of the United States House of Representatives for Louisiana's 3rd congressional district; born in New Orleans in 1961
Axeman of New Orleans, mysterious mass murderer	Stephanie Hilferty, Republican state representative for Orleans and Jefferson parishes, effective January 2016
Clyde Barrow, robber and murderer	Walker Hines, former state representative
Sylvestro Carolla, mafia boss	Gerry E. Hinton, former state senator from St. Tammany Parish
Antoinette Frank, former New Orleans Police Officer, convicted murderer	Jean Joseph Amable Humbert, army general, subordinate to Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans
Francis Grevenberg, crime-busting superintendent of the Louisiana state police, 1952–1955	Nita Rusich Hutter, college administrator and politician
Ivory Harris, drug trafficker and weapons trafficker	Girod Jackson, III, state legislator for Jefferson Parish, 2008–2013; former New Orleans resident[24]
Jean Lafitte, pirate	John E. Jackson, state Republican party chairman, 1929 to 1934; Republican national committeeman, 1934 to 1952, practiced law in New Orleans[25]
Pierre Lafitte, pirate and brother of Jean Lafitte	Bernette Joshua Johnson, Chief Justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court since 2013; associate justice, 1994–2013, native and resident of New Orleans
Delphine LaLaurie, socialite and sadist	Jeannette Knoll, associate justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court; reared and educated in New Orleans, where the court meets; resides in Marksville [26]
Carlos Marcello, businessman and mafia boss	Mary Landrieu, state representative, state treasurer, U.S. senator
Captain Bill McDonald, legendary Texas Ranger, attended Soule Commercial College in New Orleans in the early 1870s	Mitch Landrieu, state representative, lieutenant governor, mayor of New Orleans
Lee Harvey Oswald, assassin	Moon Landrieu, judge and politician, mayor of New Orleans
Bonnie Parker, robber and murderer	Hank Lauricella, former professional football player; state senator from Jefferson Parish, 1972–1996
Ronald A. Williams II, murdered New Orleans police officer	Samuel Lawrason, attorney, authored the Lawrason Act on municipal government[27]
Fictional	Sam A. LeBlanc, III, New Orleans attorney, former state legislator, former temporary federal appeals court judge; retired to St. Francisville c. 2006
Mr. Bingle, snowman that assisted Santa Claus and worked at Maison Blanche Department Store	W. Burch Lee, state representative; clerk of court
Benjamin Button, man who is born old and grows young, in a film loosely adapted from an F. Scott Fitzgerald short story	Art Lentini, Metairie attorney who succeeded Hank Lauricella in the state senate (1996–2008)
Seymore D. Fair, 1984 Louisiana World Exposition Mascot, celebrity cartoon character, advocate for animal, people, and planet welfare	Bob Livingston, Republican former U.S. Representative for 1st congressional district
Gambit, Marvel Comics superhero (X-Men)	Lt. Gen. James Longstreet, a Confederate general
Hazel Levesque, previous residence before moving and first death	Nicholas Lorusso, Republican state representative for Orleans and Jefferson parishes from 2007 to 2016
Dwayne Cassius "King" Pride, NCIS Supervisory Agent, NCIS: New Orleans	Bessie Margolin, labor lawyer
Benjamin Sisko, Starfleet captain (Star Trek: Deep Space Nine)	Virginia Martinez, Republican activist, treasurer of the 1980 and 1984 Republican National Conventions
Film and television	Danny Martiny, state senator from Jefferson Parish, was born in New Orleans.
Nefterteri Shepherd, African-American model and actress	P.J. Mills, politician, businessman
Bryan Batt, actor	Harold A. Moise, state representative for the 12th Ward, Orleans civil court judge from 1937 to 1948, and associate justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court from 1948 to 1958
Sandra Bullock, actress, resident	A. Brown Moore, member of the New Orleans City Council from 1950 to 1957; decorated World War II veteran, lawyer, and businessman
Kitty Carlisle, entertainer	Ernest Nathan Morial, American political, legal, and civil rights leader
Paul Carr, actor	Marc Morial, former mayor, son of Ernest Nathan Morial

John Carroll, actor and singer	Arthur A. Morrell, New Orleans lawyer; Clerk of court
Laura Cayouette, actor and author	Jean-Paul Morrell, New Orleans lawyer and member of both houses of the Louisiana State Legislature[28]
Patricia Clarkson, actor	deLesseps Story Morrison, former mayor and ambassador to the Organization of American States
Marshall Colt, psychologist and former actor	deLesseps Morrison Jr., late state representative
Frank Joseph Davis, television journalist and cookbook author	William Mumford, Confederate resistor in Union-occupied New Orleans during the Civil War
Ellen DeGeneres, comedian, talk show host	Ray Nagin, former mayor of New Orleans
Vance DeGeneres, actor, screenwriter, and musician (bass)	Kenneth L. Odinet Sr., state representative for Orleans and St. Bernard parishes, 1988–2008
Raquel "Rocsi" Diaz, television host and personality on BET's 106 and Park	Michael H. O'Keefe, president of the Louisiana State Senate from 1976 to 1983; convicted felon
Faith Domergue, actress	Alejandro O'Reilly, governor of Louisiana, known as "Bloody O'Reilly"
Donna Douglas, actress (Ellie Mae from The Beverly Hillbillies)	Lionel Ott, state senator from 1940 to 1945 and New Orleans Finance Commissioner from 1946 to 1954; candidate for lieutenant governor in 1952
John Goodman, actor	Paul Pastorek, Louisiana state superintendent of education from 2007 to 2011; subsequently general council to Airbus Group, Inc.
James E. Paxton, district attorney of Louisiana 6th Judicial District based in St. Joseph, practiced law in New Orleans from 1988 to 1993[29]	Sports
Leander Perez, district judge, district attorney, and president of the Plaquemines Parish Commission Council	Ashley Ambrose, NFL player, Atlanta Falcons and New Orleans Saints, graduated from Alcee Fortier
P.B.S. Pinchback, politician	Tom Benson, owner of the New Orleans Saints
Loulan Pitre, Jr., New Orleans lawyer and former state representative for Lafourche Parish	Delvin Breaux, gridiron football player
Edward Joseph Price, state representative for District 58, Gonzales businessman, and former resident of New Orleans[30][31]	Cethan Carter, American football player
Andrew C. Querbes Sr., banker and mayor of Shreveport from 1902 to 1906; New Orleans native	Will Clark, former Major League Baseball star, infielder
William P. Quigley, activist attorney and academic	Tazzie Colomb, IFBB professional female bodybuilder and powerlifter
Max Rafferty, educator author and columnist, California politician, born in New Orleans in 1917	Ernie Danjean, former Green Bay Packers linebacker
George W. Reese Jr., New Orleans lawyer; Republican political figure, senatorial nominee in 1960[32]	Orleans Darkwa, professional football player
Beth Rickey, political activist who opposed David Duke	Tom Dempsey, former NFL kicker, held longest field goal record for over 43 years
Edward Ripoll, state representative for District 103, 1984–1988; original owner of Bud Rip's Bar in New Orleans, retired to St. Bernard Parish and died in 2006	David Dixon, professional sports advocate for New Orleans Saints, Louisiana Superdome, USFL, World Championship Tennis
Cokie Roberts, journalist, daughter of Hale and Lindy Boggs	Scott Dohmann, former MLB pitcher
Angelo Roppolo, political consultant from Shreveport, born in New Orleans in 1920	Corey Dowden, former NFL defensive back
James St. Raymond, businessman and state representative for Orleans Parish from 1988 to 1992	Clyde Drexler, former University of Houston and NBA star, member of Basketball Hall of Fame
Tom Schedler, former state senator from St. Tammany Parish and current Louisiana secretary of state	Bobby Duhon, professional football player
Ed Scogin, former state representative from St. Tammany Parish	Marshall Faulk, professional football star (St. Louis Rams), member of Pro Football Hall of Fame
Pat Screen, Louisiana State University quarterback, lawyer, and former Mayor-President of East Baton Rouge Parish	Steve Foley, former defensive back for Denver Broncos
Ronal W. Serpas, Superintendent of the New Orleans Police Department since 2010	Matt Forte, running back for Chicago Bears, New York Jets
Eric Skrmetta, an attorney from Metairie, Louisiana, who is a Republican member of the Louisiana Public Service Commission for District 1. (R)	John Fourcade, former NFL and CFL quarterback, sports analyst
Jefferson B. Snyder, lived in New Orleans from 1893 to 1897; later district attorney in three delta parishes in northeast Louisiana from 1904 to 1948	De'Aaron Fox, point guard for Sacramento Kings
James Z. Spearing, attorney, school board member, U.S. representative from Louisiana's 2nd congressional district, 1924–1931	Nolan Franz, former Green Bay Packers wide receiver
Paul Spitzfaden, Republican mayor of Mandeville, 1984–1996; born in New Orleans, 1920[33]	Eddie Garcia, former Green Bay Packers placekicker
James Sutterfield, first Republican member of the Louisiana House of Representatives from Orleans Parish since Reconstruction; served 1970–1972	Tookie Gilbert, Major League Baseball player

Dorothy Mae Taylor, first African-American woman to serve in the Louisiana House, 1971–1980; member of the New Orleans City Council, 1986–1994[34]	Danny Granger, forward for NBA's Indiana Pacers, Miami Heat
Addison Roswell Thompson, perennial segregationist candidate for mayor of New Orleans and governor of Louisiana between 1954 and 1975	Adrian Hardy, NFL player
Ben C. Toledano, Republican nominee for mayor of New Orleans in 1970 and U.S. Senate in 1972; lawyer and author; New Orleans native, resident of Pass Christian, Mississippi, since 1991[35]	Chris Henry, former NFL wide receiver
A.P. Tureaud, attorney	Chris Horton, safety, Washington Redskins
Jorge Ubico, exiled president of Guatemala	Kevin Hughes, former NFL offensive tackle
José de Villamil (or José Villamil), father of the independence of Ecuador	Tory James, former cornerback for Cincinnati Bengals
Roger F. Villere Jr., politician, chairman of Louisiana Republican Party	Avery Johnson, former National Basketball Association player, former coach of Dallas Mavericks
David Vitter, U.S. Senator, 2005 to 2017	Junkyard Dog, stage name of Sylvester Ritter, former professional wrestler
David Voelker, businessman	Robert Kelley, Washington Redskins running back
Frank Voelker Jr., lawyer, politician	Shaun King, former NFL quarterback
John Volz, late U.S. attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana	Kerry Kittles, former NBA player for New Jersey Nets
Chatham Roberdeau Wheat, leader of the Louisiana Tigers during the US Civil War
Edward Douglass White, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court	Michael Lewis, former New Orleans Saints wide receiver
John C. White, Louisiana education superintendent since 2012; superintendent of the Recovery School District in New Orleans, 2011[36]	Kendrick Lewis, NFL free safety, played for Kansas City Chiefs and Baltimore Ravens, attended Ole Miss
Robert Wilkie, National Security Assistant to the President	Rydell Malancon, former NFL linebacker
Alfred C. Williams, lawyer and state representative for East Baton Rouge Parish since 2012; born in New Orleans in 1951[37]	Archie Manning, former New Orleans Saints quarterback, father of Peyton and Eli
Clint Williamson, US Ambassador, White House policy official, United Nations envoy	Eli Manning, New York Giants quarterback
Peggy Wilson, member of the New Orleans City Council from 1986 to 1998 [38]	Peyton Manning, former Indianapolis Colts and Denver Broncos quarterback
John Minor Wisdom, judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit	Pete Maravich, basketball Hall of Famer, played for LSU and NBA's New Orleans Jazz
Andrew Young, politician	Sammy Martin, former New England Patriots running back
Math, science, and invention	Tyrann Mathieu, player for NFL's Arizona Cardinals
Ruth Benerito, inventor of wrinkle-free cotton	Bo McCalebb, Macedonian basketball player who plays for Montepaschi Siena
Alfred H. Clifford, mathematician	Max McGee, NFL player on five championship teams
Isaac Cline, meteorologist and writer	Sylvester McGrew, former Green Bay Packers defensive end
Jan Hamer, organic chemist	Greg Monroe, college basketball player for Georgetown University
Benjamin Morgan Harrod, civil engineer	Paul Morphy, world chess champion
Andrew Higgins, ship builder and inventor	Eddie Murray, prolific NFL placekicker
Theodore K. Lawless, dermatologist, medical researcher, and philanthropist	Antonio Narcisse, football player
Emile Lamm, inventor	Mel Ott, Major League Baseball Hall of Famer
Abraham Louis Levin, physician and inventor of the Levin Tube	Micah Owings, MLB pitcher
Levi Spear Parmley, inventor of dental floss	Robert Pack, NBA player, assistant coach for New Orleans Pelicans
Mark Plotkin, ethnobotanist	Joe Pasternack, head basketball coach at UC Santa Barbara
John Leonard Riddell, inventor of the binocular microscope	Audrey Patterson, first African-American woman to win Olympic medal
Norbert Rilleaux, inventor, engineer	Chris Quinn, former NBA player and current Miami Heat assistant coach
A. Baldwin Wood, inventor and engineer	Eldridge Recasner, former NBA player
Music	Alana Shipp, American/Israeli IFBB professional bodybuilder
August Alsina, singer/songwriter	Nate Singleton, former wide receiver for San Francisco 49ers
Troy "Trombone Shorty" Andrews, musician	Neil Smith, former defensive end, Kansas City Chiefs
Phil Anselmo, musician	Truett Smith, football player
Louis Armstrong, musician and entertainer	Kordell Stewart, former NFL quarterback
B.G., rapper	Patrick Surtain, former NFL cornerback
Baby Boy Da Prince, rapper	Ron Swoboda, former New York Mets outfielder
Achille Baquet, musician	Ike Taylor, cornerback, Pittsburgh Steelers
George Baquet, musician	Roosevelt Taylor, safety, 1963 NFL champion Chicago Bears
Paul Barbarin, musician and composer	Taryn Terrell, professional wrestler for Total Nonstop Action Wrestling
Pat Barberot, band leader	Mike Wallace, wide receiver for Pittsburgh Steelers
	Ron Washington, longtime manager of MLB's Texas Rangers

Dave Bartholomew, musician, composer, promoter	Reggie Wayne, wide receiver for Indianapolis Colts
Jon Batiste, singer, composer, pianist, jazz musician	Aeneas Williams, former cornerback for St. Louis Rams
Sidney Bechet, musician	Jason Williams (born 1983), basketball player for Hapoel Be'er Sheva of the National Basketball League of Israel
Better Than Ezra, rock group	John "Hot Rod" Williams, longtime professional basketball player
Birdman aka Baby, rapper, producer	Korey Williams, Canadian Football League player
Big Freedia, bounce artist	Other
Terence Blanchard, musician and composer	Seymore D. Fair, 1984 Louisiana World Exposition, World's first Expo Mascot in the history of World Expos
Buddy Bolden, musician, early jazz figure	Ruby Bridges, commemorated for her role, as a child, in integration of the New Orleans Public School System
James Booker, musician	Betty DeGeneres, LGBT rights activist
Connée Boswell, singer, member of the Boswell Sisters singing group	Emmitt Douglas, former president of the Louisiana NAACP[39]
Helvetia "Vet" Boswell, singer, member of the Boswell Sisters singing group	Jesse Duplantist, televangelist
Martha Boswell, singer, member of the Boswell Sisters singing group	David Ferrie, pilot investigated in the assassination of President Kennedy
Jimmy Bower, guitarist, drummer	Jean Margaret Gordon, suffragette
George Brunis, jazz trombonist	Kate M. Gordon, suffragette
Collie Buddz, reggae/dancehall artist	J. D. Grey, pastor, former president of the Southern Baptist Convention
Henry "Professor Longhair" Byrd, pianist, singer	Margaret Haughery, philanthropist
C-Murder, rapper	Francis L. Hawks, clergyman
Paul Caporino, songwriter, musician, lead singer of M.O.T.O.	Marie Alice Heine, first American Princess of Monaco
Alton "Big Al" Carson, blues singer	Sir Lady Java, drag queen, actress and transgender rights activist
Alex Chilton, songwriter, guitarist, music producer, lead singer of the Box Tops and Big Star	Blaine Kern, Mardi Gras float designer and builder
Choppa, rapper	Benjamin Henry Latrobe, architect
Jon Cleary, funk and R&B musician	Marie Laveau, "voodoo queen"
Lee Collins, jazz trumpeter	Jean Alexandre LeMat, inventor
Harry Connick Jr., musician and entertainer	Angélica María, Mexican entertainer, "La Novia de Mexico"
Cowboy Mouth, band	Frank H. Mayer, frontiersman[40]
Barry Cowsill, musician	Eleanor McMain, civic activist
Curren$y, rapper	Sally Miller: The Lost German Slave Girl
Edmond Dede, musician, composer	Allison 'Tootie' Montana, Mardi Gras Indian, "chief of chiefs"
Fernando del Valle, operatic tenor	Paul Morphy, unofficial world chess champion
DJ Khaled, DJ	Homer Plessy, early civil rights activist
Dr. John, musician	Babe Stovall, entertainer, "Mr. Bojangles"
Johnny Dodds, jazz clarinetist and saxophonist	Paul Tulane, benefactor of Tulane University
Fats Domino, musician	TJ Kirk, Youtuber